The time period for reply, if any, is set in the attached communication.

Office Action Summary	Application No. 10/726,830	Applicant(s) ZAMBELLI ET AL.
	Examiner KIEN T. NGUYEN	Art Unit 3711

-- The MAILING DATE of this communication appears on the cover sheet with the correspondence address --

Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Status

- 1) ☒ Responsive to communication(s) filed on 19 September 2008.
- 2a) ☒ This action is FINAL. 2b) ☐ This action is non-final.
- 3) ☐ Since this application is in condition for allowance except for formal matters, prosecution as to the merits is closed in accordance with the practice under Ex parte Quayle, 1935 C.D. 11, 453 O.G. 213.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1, 2, 14, 17, 19, 20, 56, 57 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Bolliger et al U.S. Patent 6,287,211.

Bolliger disclosed a seat comprising a support (6) and means (30) for immobilizing the user on the support leaving the passenger's shoulders free and immobilizing him through an abdominal portion as shown in Fig. 3; the means (30) having at least one front support (30) and opposing means (5) designed to act on the user's back. Fig. 8 shows a roller coaster having a platform (1) moving on at least one track comprising at least one seat as described above. The roller coaster is typically having a circular and having a plurality of seats arranged on at least one peripheral portion of the platform, and the seat is position in such a way that the passenger faces outwards from the platform.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Art Unit: 3711

Claim 18 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Bolliger et al.

It is noted that Bolliger et al failed to teach the platform as being circular as claimed. However, there is no significance of the circular platform claimed. Accordingly, it would have been a matter of design choice to manufacture the platform (1) of Bolliger et al with a circular shape to accommodate any particular ride.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 3-13, 15, 16, and 21-50 are allowed.

Response to Arguments

In response to applicant's argument that Bolliger et al failed to show a support to receive "the passenger astride seat", a recitation of the intended use of the claimed invention must result in a structural difference between the claimed invention and the prior art in order to patentably distinguish the claimed invention from the prior art. If the prior art structure is capable of performing the intended use, then it meets the claim. In this case, the definition of "astride" is stated below:

a·stride

HEAR

ə'straɪdShow Spelled Pronunciation [uh-strahyd] Show IPA Pronunciation

–preposition

1. with a leg on each side of; straddling: She sat astride the horse.
2. on both sides of: Budapest lies astride the river.
3. in a dominant position within: Napoleon stands astride the early 19th century like a giant.

–adverb, adjective

4. in a posture of striding or straddling; with legs apart or on either side of something.

Fig. 3 of Bolliger clearly shows the seat and the passenger having a leg on each side of the middle section of the seat. Therefore, such argument is not persuasive.

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
